Field trip to the science museum

The bus leaves the main gate at half past seven in the morning.

Students should bring water, a hat and comfortable walking shoes.

Please return the signed permission form to the class teacher by Thursday.

We will visit the planetarium first and the energy exhibition after lunch.

The group returns to school at four in the afternoon.